

Zen Mind, Beginner's Mind

A SPECIAL EVENING WITH ZEN TEACHER KOSHO McCALL
of the Soto Zen Lineage of Zen Master Shunryu Suzuki of the San Francisco Zen Center

Sunday, August 16, 5:30 PM - 7:30 PM

(doors open at 5:00 PM . . . $5 - $25 suggested donation)

KOSHO McCALL is a Soto Zen Buddhist Priest and Teacher who received Dharma Transmission in the lineage of Zen Master Shunryu Suzuki in 2003. He was born in Rochester, Indiana, and graduated from the University of Maine in 1970 and received a M.Div. in 1976 from General Seminary. He was ordained as an Episcopal priest in 1976 and served as a priest at the Cathedral in Portland, Maine, and in other parishes from 1974-1988. He also had a private counseling practice in pastoral psychology from 1985-1988, and he has training in conflict resolution. He came to San Francisco in 1988 and served until 1992 as a priest at Grace Cathedral and other parishes.

In 1995, he joined the San Francisco Zen Center. He became a Buddhist priest and served as Head of Practice at the Tassajara Zen Mountain Center in 1997. In May 2009, he moved to Texas and is now the Head Teacher at the Austin Zen Center.

Sponsored by: AWAKENING HEART Community of Mindful Living

Facilitated by: Brother ChiSing (ordained disciple of Thich Nhat Hanh)

Music by: Michael Gott

 ASL interpretation for the deaf will be provided*

Location: UNITY CHURCH OF DALLAS
6525 Forest Lane
(between Preston Rd. & Hillcrest Rd.)
Dallas, Texas 75230

WWW.AWAKENINGHEART.ORG